Multiple Giving Opportunities

\ Who you will help

In Sderot, a city struggling with socioeconomic challenges exacerbated by its proximity to Gaza, life for the elderly can be difficult even in the best circumstances where there is a diminishing quality of life. Many of the elderly population of Sderot suffer from loneliness and neglect, as well as the stress that comes from the security situation in Gaza. The socioeconomic position of many of the elderly population in Sderot also creates a barrier to receiving the proper day to day care that many of them need, as well as basics like proper nutrition, prayer, exercise, and cognitive stimulation.
